

Terms and Conditions of Use of Peter Chappell websites.
Updated 4 October 2007

Please read these Terms and Conditions of Use carefully if you intend using the Peter Chappell websites. The Peter Chappell websites include vitalremedies.com , healingdownloads.com , self-realisationhealing.com, birdfluhealing.com, traumahealing.com, vaccinationhealing.com, herpeshealing.com and CFShealing.com. This list will increase and will automatically include new websites initiated by Peter Chappell.

In this document the word diseases is used to represent trauma including psychological trauma, fears and phobias, tonics and diseases and other non-physical conditions.

In this document we use the term resonance to represent remedy, drops, downloads, healing downloads, and all these terms here mean the same thing.

If you disagree with any of these terms and conditions please do not seek to use the websites.

Peter Chappell and his associates reserves the right to change this Agreement, in whole or in part, from time to time at our sole discretion, and leave it to you to read this agreement regularly to see any updates and to inform you through newsletters that there are updates. The date at the top of this document is when it was last updated. It's best if you check this agreement from time to time as it may change. If you continue to use the website it means you except the changes that have taken place to this document.

THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS DO NOT AFFECT YOUR STATUTORY RIGHTS.

Disclaimer.

The information provided on Peter Chappell websites does not seek to diagnose disease, or to replace medical advice. Proper medical advice should be sought in every instance.

By ordering and using a healingdownload.com and vitalremedies.com you acknowledge that you have read this agreement, understand it and agree to be bound by its instructions, terms and conditions.

There is NO REFUND if the resonances do not work.

While we offer self-help and professional medical help suggestions for a wide range of diseases this is absolutely conditional upon you taking the best medical advice from your doctor and any suggestions we make are in no way a substitute for this.

We strongly advise that you co-operate actively with the best medical carers available to you.

Self-help may (or may not) be possible in the early stages of the disease or may be helpful (or not) in an incurable disease especially where there is no or limited conventional treatment and the condition is not life threatening and we want you to be able to help yourself as much as possible.

It is our experience however that many people overestimate their own capacity to manage their own diseases and we strongly recommend in all situations that you have good medical advice with medical professionals and that you consult with them routinely about all your health and disease issues.

If you buy resonances from Peter Chappell websites you are completely and utterly responsible for their use, legally and in health terms.

Peter Chappell, his agents, advertisers, promoters are not responsible for your health or your choice to use resonances.

WE DO NOT GIVE ANY WARRANTY as your situation is outside of our control.

We cannot guarantee any effects as this is dependant on proper use and proper indication and many variables completely outside of our control.

We cannot in any circumstances be responsible for the actions of the resonance that you choose from us as the exact circumstances of your disease and situation is unknown to us and all situations are unique.

We cannot say what is suitable for self-help or what is a safe self-help situation as that is totally individual to your personal situation and can only be properly judged by your medical advisers.

We do recommend that you visit homoeopaths and doctors if you want medical advice and holistic support and information.

It is the sole responsibility of the person using the product, or the parents of the child using it, or the responsible supervising person, or the medical attendant, and in conjunction with medical advice, as to what happens and how to proceed and how to manage and how to ensure the safety of the patient.

Peter Chappell and Peter Chappell websites absolutely and completely take no responsibility for the health of the patient whatsoever and without any exception.

Peter Chappell websites do not give medical advice whatsoever and if anything on this website appears to contradict that, that is a mistake or misinterpretation of the information.

In particular and we stress this strongly the association between disease label and Peter Chappell website resonances is entirely for conventional identification and it does not ever imply suitability for use, fitness for purpose, safety in use, harmlessness and correctness in selection. It in no way suggests that other medical treatment be started, stopped, or interrupted.

PeterChappell websites likewise do not signify that the resonances treat diseases. The resonances provide information in potential to offer the possibility of self-healing which is the mind/body/ego/vital force chooses to use it, informs the mind/body/ego/vital force that there is a stuckness in the system of the energy structure of the body mind spirit. What the mind/body/ego/vital force chooses to do about that is entirely at its own discretion, as it determines all health outcomes, and it has the complete ability and the full authority to ignore or accept, or except to some extent, information that the resonances provide.

We also want to make a strong point of the fact that we are not claiming that these resonances heal anything and we deny that these resonances do heal anything. This is a misunderstanding of how they work. What they do is that they supply information in potential to offer the possibility of internal self-healing which the internal mechanisms of the mind ego body can choose to use or not to use to for healing the disease or the trauma or to act as a tonic for a body system.

These resonances are information in potential to offer the possibility of self-healing and there is no physical content and no chemical content and no measurable content whatsoever. This applies whether they are supplied in drops, in pills, or as downloads/sounds.

In all these cases of pills, drops and downloads the liquid, the solid material, the sound and the pictures are not the healing information and only the carriers from the information. The drop and pills are made by putting information in potential to offer the possibility of self-healing into a sealed bottle containing pure water plus alcohol as a preservative. The downloads are made by putting the information in potential to offer the possibility of self-healing into music and pictures including motion pictures.

The way information in potential to offer the possibility of self-healing and is achieved is a trade secret. A trade secret is a legal and legitimate way of protecting something. Likewise the way the healing downloads are personalised is a trade secret.

The Peter Chappell websites resonances are provided "as is", without warranty of any kind. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Peter Chappell disclaims all warranties, expressed or implied, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of health, harmlessness and fitness for a particular health condition and any warranty against infringement, with regards to the Peter Chappell websites.
